

FURNITURE & INTERIORS
TO TRANSFORM YOUR SPACE

Case Study

Client: Leeds Day Solicitors

Project Date: August / September 2017

Project Management Service including:

- Interior Fit-out
- Space planning & design service
- Office move service
- Out of office works
- Risk Assessments & method statements
- Delivery & installation schedule

When Leeds Day Solicitors moved from their existing offices to larger premises in St Neots - Cambridgeshire, they needed an office furniture and interior fit out partner that would help reflect their values and create a modern and inspiring place to work.

design and move management services, that together minimised costs and ensured essential day-to-day business continued to function without disruption.

With a 12 week delivery and installation schedule, and as part of the full project management service, MACOI completed an interior fit out that consisted of new kitchen facilities, blinds, data cabling, signage and partitioning, which involved converting an open plan space into partners offices.

Leeds Day Solicitors are an award-winning legal firm offering a tailored range of services to businesses and individuals, with two further branch offices in Huntingdon & St Ives.

As specialists in design, MACOI provided a modern bespoke reception counter and purpose made boardroom table with an intelligent IT solution, as well as the supply of innovative furniture for areas including: administration offices, meeting rooms, breakout areas, welcome area and server / copier area.

MACOI worked with Leeds Day from the initial concept and design stage, taking a partnership approach to guarantee they benefited from our experience in space
