TO TRANSFORM YOUR SPACE

Case Study

Client: University of East London

Project date: June 2016

Project Value: £10k

Project Management Service including:

- Detailed space planning
- Office move service
- Bespoke & standard furniture

The University of London required an office and educational furniture partner to refurbish a busy working office including a reception area and small meeting area.

MACOI ticked all the boxes offering designs for a bespoke reception counter, detailed space plans and the ability to meet the installation and delivery requirements.
